TAKE IT IN TIME

Just as Scores of Barre People Have.

Waiting doesn't pay.
If you neglect the aching back,
Urinary troubles, diabetes, surely follow.

Doan's Kidney Pills relieve backache, cure every kidney ailment.

Barre citizens endorse them.
S. H. Maxwell, barber, at 303 North Main street, Barre, Vt., says: "My occupation, of course, requires a good deal of standing and stooping over and I suppose this is what brought on kidney trouble in my case. I had a heavy dull pain nearly all the time just over the hips, and at night when I got through working my back would be so lame that I could hardly get around. A friend advised me to try Doan's Kidney Pills and I got them at E. A. Brown's drug store. Before I had used one box I could see they were helping me and after taking three boxes I was completely cured of all my former troubles. I give all the credit for this to Doan's Kidney Pills and always speak a good word for them whenever I have a chance."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-McMillan Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Nellie Matthews vs. Frank Tracy et al.

In Chancery, Washington Co. Mar. Term, 1907

Whereas, Nellie Matthews of the City of Barre in the county of Washington has this day filed in the office of the clerk of the court of chancery of the county of Washington her bill of complaint against Frank Tracy and T. J. Deavitt, in the county of Washington, Henry P. Matthews, formerly of Berlin in said county, Geo. E. Bales of Wilton in the state of New Hampshire, and George Emerson of Berlin, state of Vermont, and S. P. Gale of Gale, N. Y., setting forth in substance: That the oratrix was lawfully joined in marriage with the said Henry P. Matthews, that he owns a farm in the town of Berlin and the buildings thereon, and other personal property to the value of forty-five hundred dollars, and that he has large sums of money deposited in certain other banks in Detroit and elsewhere; that she lived and resided on said farm in said town of Berlin with the said defendant, Matthews; that while absent from said farm, securing medical assistance, the said Matthews rented said farm as he claims to the said George Emerson, and then said Matthews absconded from the state and has secluded himself so that process could not be served upon him either within or without the state; and

Whereas, the said defendant, Matthews, left the oratrix destitute and unable to take care of herself. That on the day of August, 1902, she brought her petition returnable to the next term of the Washington county court, for divorce, praying therein for temporary and permanent alimony, and that said cause is now pending in said court; that the defendant, Matthews, so secreted himself that notice of several motions for temporary alimony could not be served upon him; that he also gave out in words and speeches that he would not support the oratrix, nor assist her in any way, and that he would sell or dispose of his property so that the oratrix would be deprived of her rights in and to the same, and would place his property beyond the reach of process; that in pursuance of said threat, the said defendant, Matthews, entered into certain arrangements and agreements with said defendants except Tracy to the end and for the purpose of bringing suits against the said defendant, Matthews, attaching his said property, to sell and dispose of the same and thereby defeat the rights of the oratrix in and to her homestead in said property and her rights of alimony in and to the same; that all of said suits were brought by relatives of the said defendant, Matthews; that the case of George E. Bales vs. Henry Matthews was entered in court in due course, and continued from time to time until the March term of Washington county court, 1906, when judgment was entered against the said defendant by default; that the suit of Gale against the said defendant, Matthews, is now pending in said Washington county court, and that the said defendant has not appeared, nor has any person entered their appearance for him. Judgment was entered in the Bales case for the sum of $700 damages, and costs in the sum of $44, that an execution was issued and delivered to Frank Tracy, sheriff of Washington county. That he levied upon the property of the defendant, Matthews, that he advertised the same for sale on the 29th day of December, 1906; that your oratrix on the 28th day of December, 1906, secured a restraining order signed by George M. Powers, chancellor, restraining and forbidding the said Tracy from selling and disposing of said property until the motion for a temporary injunction could be heard and disposed of, and

Whereas, the oratrix alleges that she has a homestead interest in and to said property that she has never sold or encumbered the same in any way or manner, and

Therefore, your oratrix prays:

1st. That the premises considered a writ of subpoena be granted to your oratrix to be directed to the said defendants, commanding them to appear before the court of chancery to be held at Montpelier, within and for the county of Washington, on the first Wednesday after the first Tuesday in March, A. D. 1907, then and there to answer to the foregoing bill of complaint, and you are hereby commanded to cause your appearance to be entered by the clerk of said court on the return day hereof, and to stand to and abide such order, direction and decree therein as to the honorable court shall seem meet.

2nd. That the premises considered a temporary injunction or restraining order pending a hearing on a motion for a temporary injunction may issue, restraining and forbidding the defendants, Tracy, Deavitt, Bales, from selling and disposing of said property until further order of the court, and until said divorce case and the question of alimony be heard and disposed of.

3rd. That said judgment in the case of Bales vs. Matthews, as hereinbefore referred to, upon final hearing, be declared null and void and set aside.

4th. That the case vs. said Matthews, as set forth in the foregoing bill of complaint, be ordered paid or discontinued, and that the said Gale and Matthews, their servants, agents and attorneys, be strictly enjoined and forbidden from prosecuting said case to final judgment.

5th. That upon final hearing, if the court in the exercise of its sound judgment and discretion, decrees that said judgments or cases should not be perpetually enjoined to final execution, and the said parties should not be perpetually restrained and enjoined from pursuing the same to final judgment, then the oratrix prays that said execution judgment and other cases pending be stayed and the parties and their attorneys and agents restrained from pressing the same to final judgment and execution until the rights of the oratrix in her homestead and her interest in and to the said real estate shall be determined and disposed of.

6th. That the said Matthews and the said George Emerson be enjoined and strictly forbidden from interfering with the oratrix in the use of and the enjoyment of her homestead right in and to the said property.

7th. That the said George Emerson be perpetually restrained and forbidden from selling or removing any of the personal property that was on the farm at the time that he went into possession of the same, and that he be perpetually enjoined from encumbering or interfering with the same.

8th. That a temporary injunction issue enjoining the said defendants, their servants, agents and attorneys, from the further prosecution of said suit and all proceedings under said judgment and execution, and that the said George Emerson be enjoined from interfering with the privileges and use of her homestead rights in said premises, that the said George Emerson be enjoined and restrained from selling or disposing of, or encumbering any personal property that was on the farm at the time that he went into possession of the same.

9th. That upon final hearing the said temporary injunction be made perpetual, or that such other and proper relief be granted as to the court under the circumstances and the facts in the case, it should consider proper.

And your oratrix will ever pray.

Nellie Matthews.

And whereas, it is made to appear that the said George E. Gale, S. P. Gale and Henry P. Matthews reside and are without this state, where service of the process of this court cannot be made upon them, therefore it is ordered that the said George E. Gale, S. P. Gale and Henry P. Matthews be given notice of the pendency of said bill of complaint, given opportunity to make defense therein and summoned to appear and make answer thereto before the honorable court next to be held at Montpelier within and for the county of Washington and state of Vermont, on the second Tuesday in March, A. D. 1907, by publication of the substance of said bill of complaint, together with this order, in the Barre Daily Times, a newspaper published at city of Barre in the county of Washington, three times successively, the last of which publications shall be at least 20 days prior to the said second Tuesday in March, A. D. 1907, which shall be deemed sufficient notice to the said defendants.

Given under my hand at Montpelier in the county of Washington, this 15th day of January, A. D. 1907.

Melville E. Smith, Clerk.

Richard A. Hoar,
Solicitor for oratrix.

If You Were Offered

An Active Liver for a sluggish one,
A Sweet Breath for a bad one,
A Strong Stomach for a weak one,
Rosy Cheeks for pale ones.

Would You Trade?

Virginia Velvets

One at Night—
O. K. Next Morning.

Keeps the stomach sweet, the liver active, cleanses the bowels, robs digestion of its terror, fits you for strong physical or mental labor.

Would you trade twenty-five cents for health? That yellow look for a rosy hue? Then go to your druggist, trade 25c for a bottle of "Virginia Velvets." Take one tonight and you will be O. K. in the morning. Then if you could not get another bottle of "Virginia Velvets" for 25c, you would not trade your bottle for 25c.

This is the only remedy ever discovered for constipation and liver troubles that does not cause the nightly pill habit. Unlike all other remedies for constipation, the offender you use "Virginia Velvets," the less you have to use. It is not necessary to go on using them forever and in increasing doses. It is the safest, surest, smoothest remedy for constipation ever discovered. So wonder it has been named "Velvet" by those who know that if you should be the one exception and not like them, you can take your bottle back to your druggist and he will refund your money. "Virginia Velvets" are guaranteed by the manufacturers.

ASK YOUR DRUGGIST FIRST. If he will not accommodate you, we will. Price 25c per bottle. Sent postpaid to any address on receipt of price.
